

AHS Member Convention Delegate Nomination Form

Delegates represent their Chapter at the Convention, communicate Convention decisions to Chapter members, and provide leadership in enacting the major plans and projects of the Union as approved at the Convention. Delegates must be available and committed to attending the Sept. 28, 2024 and Sept. 29, 2024 Convention. Candidates must be members in good standing and membership dues are current as reported by the most recent payment submitted by the employer and employed within a bargaining unit represented by the Chapter.

Alameda Health System has 42 total delegate seats available. Per our bylaws, the President and Vice Presidents serve as automatic delegates, and other delegates shall be selected by being nominated by at least fifteen (15) members in good standing. If more than the allotted number of delegates are nominated, an election will be held.

Names appearing below nominate the above to be a convention delegate.
